REVAMPED TEAM READY FOR FANS

Faithful Followers Eager
for Escape From Cellar
Division, Cracker Teams'
Lot Since 1930.

By RALPH MCGILL.

Twenty thousand baseball fans are expected to drink from the baseball fountain of youth at 3 o'clock this afternoon when the Atlanta Crackers meet Knoxville's Smokies at Ponce de Leon park.

The Crackers are bringing back half of the opening day cake from Knoxville, but their performance there indicated that they are one of the better teams in the league. Atlanta fans, eager to escape from the cellar division where they have been captives since 1930, have adopted the 1933 nine before its start.

The captains and the kings and queens will be there today.

Miss Scott Meador, the beautiful and charming vice president of the Debutante Club, will pitch the first ball.

Duncan Peek, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, will catch.

His Honor, Eugene Talmadge, governor of the state of Georgia, will be the batter.

His Honor, James L. Key, mayor of the city of Atlanta, will be the umpire.

Martin to See Game.

In a special box will be John D.
Martin, president of the Southern association. With him will be Wilbert Robinson, for 50 years a prominent figure in baseball, president and manager of a major league club for many years and now president of the Crackers. In the box also will be Colonel T. L. Huston, an internationally known engineer, former owner of the New York Yankees and now a director of the Atlanta baseball club. Bobby Jones, world's champion golfer, and other prominent figures of Atlanta's civil life will be present.

The hands will play, soldiers will march, clowns will perform and airplanes will roar over the field.

Andrew Jackson Messenger, the tall right-hander with the old hickory arm,
has been designated by Manager Charley Moore to pitch the opening game.
Messenger won last year's opener from Nashville in a thrilling contest and is ready to duplicate the feat again today.

New Managers in Charge.

The managers in today's game are brand new to the league. Charley Moore, who has won pennants in three leagues, heads the Crackers. Tommy

Boy, 7, Beats Out Fire, Saves Life of Sister, 4

Seven-year-old A. C. Secret Jr., (left), of 1042 State street, N. W., whose quick thinking and quick action probably saved the life of his little sister, Annie Marie, 4 (right), when the latter's clothing became ignited from a fire they had built.

A devotion long manifest between little A. C. Secret Jr., 7-year-old boy and his 4-year-old sister, Annie Marie, brought out a piece of real heroism
Wednesday afternoon when the boy, acting with presence of mind worthy of an adult, snatched his little sister's burning clothing from her body in a playhouse cave on State street, N. W.,
and probably saved her life.

In some manner unknown to their parents, the children obtained matches which had been refused them by their mother and started a fire under some twigs in the cave—a play spot dug under a bank on a vacant lot across from their home at 1042 State street.

A stick with which the little girl was toking the fire became ignited and the flames spread to her clothing. Annie Marie screamed. A. C. Jr. grabbed her quickly and began beating at the flames and tearing her clothing from her body as he removed her out of the burning playhouse. She was taken to Grady hospital, where her condition late Wednesday night was considered serious.

Both parents at Grady, were torn between fear for the life of the little girl and admiration for the conduct of her little brother.

At the meeting of the Voters' Council, a body organized three months ago by W. V. Barlow, real estate man, a legal advice committee composed of James K. Jordan, J. E. Jackson Jr., Philip Welner and Stephens Mitchell was appointed to draw up the injunction and mandamus petitions for immediate filing in Fulton superior court. The papers will be filed late this week or early next week, it was said.

R. K. Rambo, prominent business-

the Voters' Council, said that "despite contentions of the democratic executive committee that the new primary law is unconstitutional we have good legal authorities who say that test the matter in court, and we are week with representation from every ward in Atlanta and district of Atlanta. Representatives of 75 non-political civic organizations have been invited to attend its meeting as unofficial observers. Barlow said the organization is "not in a hurry to tempting to usurp powers of the democratic party, but merely insists that the democratic committee adhere to the law."

INJUNCTION TO BAR PRIMARY IN MAY SOUGHT BY GROUP

Voters' Council to Take Immediate Action, Test
New Law; Key Seeks to Clarify Situation.

Injunction against a May city primary election and mandamus to compel the city democratic executive committee to hold the primary in September or October as provided in the new law will be sought by the Voters'
Council, that organization decided Wednesday afternoon in a special meeting at the Piedmont hotel.

Decision of the group to take court action in an effort to hold the democratic executive committee to the new city primary law was reached as Mayor James L. Key and members of city council sought to avoid confusion which would be incident to the holding of two primary elections.

Members of the democratic executive committee, ignoring the new primary act, have set May 31 as the primary date, and a number of citizens have planned at least one other primary to be held in conformity with the act.

STEADY PROGRESS MADE IN CAPITAL ON MAJOR ISSUES

Roosevelt Maps Further Legislative Proposals as Congress Debates Farm Relief Program.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(P)— Engulfed by differences over how the farmer can best be helped, congress writhed through debates today while administration forces hastened preparation of mighty legislative projects
yet to come.

Despite the interlude provided the president and many legislators by the opening baseball game, a check up tonight revealed an almost bewildering procession of developments significant in the drive to better national and world economies.

President Roosevelt today placed his influence behind steps to better labor's lot, going beyond the confines of his office to recommend specific action
by the states.

His approval, and that of his secretary of labor, Frances Perkins, was given to the principle of 30-hour week legislation now before congress.

He then sent telegrams to 13 governors of industrial states commending to their attention New York state's pending minimum wage law—an "anti-sweat shop" law, which pronounces it against public policy for any employer to pay women or minors less than fair and reasonable pay, or less than "sufficient to meet the ultimate cost of living necessary for health."

On the 30-hour week bill, the administration sought to make them more elastic, so the limit of six hours and five days a week could be exceeded if that were found advisable.

The legislation would work by barring from interstate commerce articles manufactured under other than these working limits.

His secretary of commerce, Daniel
C. Roper, disclosed the forthcoming bill for relief of the railroads verges on completion, one phase yet to be disposed of relating to how much power should be vested in the "co-ordinator" to be proposed.

Senatorial administration allies would up the bill and senate banking committee would report a bill to be introduced tomorrow.

Banking Bill Proceeds.

Contrary to firm opinions held only yesterday, congressional leaders passed the work today for enactment of a banking bill this session with a provision in it for some form of insurance of bank deposits.

President Roosevelt had an open mind on the subject, but the belief was strong in both houses that the president would agree eventually to some modified form of insurance of deposits.

President Roosevelt called the chairman of the house and senate banking committees, Representative Steagall, democrat, Alabama, and Senator Fletcher, democrat, Florida, into conference.

National City Bank
Sued for $62,883,752

NEW YORK, April 12.—(P)—A stockholders' suit for $62,883,752
charging losses through "unwarranted and illegal transactions" was filed today against the National City bank,
the National City company, Charles E. Mitchell, former chairman of the board, and Rentschler, its president, and directors of both corporations.

The suit was filed by Sarah Cohen for herself and similarly situated stockholders. She made affidavit that they became aware of the facts set forth in the complaint only after March 1 and Rentschler testified in Washington recently before the senate committee investigating stock market practices.

The complaint set forth matter that was dealt with in their testimony.

Seizure Settles Rumor Of Beer's Arrival Here

"It's been a long time since any of this came into Atlanta," remarked Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant Wednesday as he confiscated the two bottles of 3.2 beer shown in the above picture. Staff photo by George Cornett.

Honest-to-goodness, physical, visible
3.2 per cent amber-colored evidence that the nation's new beer is actually in Atlanta, outlived by a theoretical "dry-as-dust" Georgia, although perfectly legal in many sister states, was on exhibition for a few minutes Wednesday afternoon at the police station when Chief T. O. Sturdivant performed the first confiscation of the brew.

As police followed the law by confiscating two bottles bearing the magic label, "Not more than 4 per cent alcohol by volume," agitation to repeal the bone-dry law in so far as beer is concerned continued over the state.

The day's development in the legislative angle were featured by an appeal from Senator W. H. Lester, of Augusta, for caucuses of senators and representatives on beer and other issues crying for attention.

Reports that Atlanta bootleggers were importing truckloads of the new brew from other states were confirmed.

DEMOCRATS SPLIT ON RULE CHANGE

Leaders Fail in Effort to Bind Membership to Vote as Party Unit.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(P)—
The house democratic leadership, gathered in a heated secret caucus, tonight failed to bind its membership to strengthen the house rules.

The proposed rule, which would increase the number of petitioners from 145 to 215, a majority in order to extract a bill out of committee to obtain a house vote, nevertheless was adopted as the "sense of the caucus."

It requires a two-thirds vote to bind the membership and the democratic caucus tonight voted, 147 to 86, on the rule. This was eight short of the necessary two-thirds.

As first presented to the caucus by democratic leaders, the resolution to change the rule would have bound them, but after several votes on substitute proposals indicating defeat for

GEORGIA TO HAVE BEER ON BORDERS AFTER MAY FIRST

Senates in Volunteer and Gamecock States Join
Houses in Approving
3.2 Beverage for Sale on First of Next Month.

LOUISIANA SALES WILL BEGIN TODAY

Brew Measures Still Pending in Florida With Passage in Prospect in Near Future.

By the Associated Press.

Tennessee and South Carolina climbed on the beer bandwagon Wednesday.

The South Carolina senate passed a bill legalizing 3.2 brew for that state and the Tennessee senate took the same action. Houses of both states previously had approved beer bills.
Governatorial approval is regarded as certain.

In Tennessee the governor's signature is all that is necessary for beer to be legal there, effective May 1.
The governor is expected to sign the measure as soon as it reaches him.

Late last night the Oklahoma senate also approved a 3.2 measure and sent it to the house a measure to submit legalized sale of 3.2 per cent beer to the electorate July 1.

Louisiana will begin drinking legal beer at noon today. The state beer bill was approved several weeks ago.
Kentucky has had the 3.2 brew
since April 7.

North Carolina's beer act goes into effect May 1.

The prohibition committee of the Florida house has reported favorably on a beer bill. A similar measure has been presented in the senate.

Georgia and Arkansas general as-semblies adjourned without passing a beer bill, and Alabama's legislature has postponed action until it now would be impossible for the assembly to pass a beer bill before adjournment.

Mississippi's legislature does not meet until next year, so there is nothing Mississippians can do about beer until then.

Court Fight Seen as DeKalb County Moves For Big Tax on Candler Zoo

Payment of a large sum of money
as taxes under a state law imposing a tax of $100 a day on all shows and exhibitions charging an admission in or near cities of more than 50,000 population has been demanded of Briarcliff Zoological Corporation,
owned by Asa G. Candler Jr., by Tax Commissioner Homer H. Howard, of DeKalb county.

Howard said Wednesday that he has asked payment of the taxes under an order from Comptroller-General W.
B. Harrison based on a ruling by Actorney-General M. J. Yeomans. W. D.
Thomson, attorney for Candler, said that the effort to collect will be resisted on the ground, among others,
that the provisions of the tax act do not apply to exhibitions where the performers are local.

That tax law was intended to apply only to traveling shows, whereas the Briarcliff show is entirely local;
even the animals live in DeKalb
county,

Easter Trade of '33 Shows Marked Increase Over '32

in almost all cases, surpasses that of 1932, a nationwide survey by the United Press showed today.

Purse strings have been loosened. Credit has eased. These two factors, plus brighter business outlook, beginning after the quick settlement of the banking crisis, have resulted in an increased Easter trade.

There is a possibility the dollar volume will not be so great as in 1932, owing to greatly reduced merchandise prices. But most merchants agree that the unit volume will be above last year's.

Typical of the reports is one coming from Chicago. A Michigan buyer placed a large order. He was warned by the Association of Commerce that he was overstocking. That was last week. This week he placed another order reporting his first stock almost depleted.

In New York, there was a generally improved tone coming from all large stores. One national chain reported shoe sales were at the rate of 40,000 pairs weekly the highest weekly average maintained since 1929. Among other comments:

Russell Fifth Avenue—Suits, particularly quality garments, are in heavy demand. More women are buying this year and they are buying more.

John Wanamaker—Business has improved.

R. H. Macy & Co.—Easter sales volume in 1932, according to present indications, will be fairly close to last year. Probably as many women will be buying this year.

I. Miller, Shoe Merchant—Using one store as a representative figure, past Saturday sales totaled 7,700 as compared with 4,500 a year ago. There are as many buyers this year as last, if not more.

Reports from the nation include:

Chicago—Business better than usual. General pickup has been from 3 to 5 per cent. Dress and millinery sales are running 15 to 34 per cent higher and one dealer reported the best business in 24 years.

Boston—Sales this year have been 25 to 30 per cent below last year, but are picking up on Easter trade.

Pittsburgh—Some stores reporting a greater unit volume than last year, although the dollar volume is off.

San Francisco—Merchants believe Easter business will be better than last year, based on the steady improvement noted today.

Kansas City—Merchants attribute increased buying to the fact Easter comes later this year than last.

New Haven, Conn.—Stores have reported good volume of sales since March 1, with a greater pre-Easter trade than last year.

St. Louis—Much better tone evident. The dollar volume is about 25 per cent under 1932, owing to reduced prices, but buying is brisk and stores are reporting larger crowds of shoppers than last year.

Dallas, Texas—Retail Department Store Association reports business 15 per cent ahead of last year.

Phoenix, Ariz.—Easter business is placed at an estimate of $950,000, increase of $250,000 over last year.

Detroit—Stores report increased buying.

Atlanta—Merchants report considerable improvement over last year.

Cleveland—Inclement weather has prevented expected rush of Easter business.

Los Angeles—Conditions appear improved.

New Orleans—Improved business with one company reporting this month's trade better than any similar period in 12 months.

CHURCH AND STATE NEAR NEW ACCORD

Pope, Cardinal Pacelli and Von Papen Resume Conversations.

VATICAN CITY, April 12.—(AP)—A concordat between the Vatican and Germany will result from conversations which are being held by Pope Pius XI, Cardinal Pacelli, papal secretary of state, and Vice Chancellor Franz Von Papen, prelates said today.

This agreement would embody the three existing concordats between the Vatican and Prussia, Bavaria and Baden, which were negotiated when Cardinal Pacelli was the papal nuncio to Germany.

Prelates said that the agreement would be similar to those concluded with many other countries—it would regulate the affairs of church and state—and in no way would it mention the Hitlerites or the Catholic center party in Germany, or enter into the political situation in the Reich.

The German vice chancellor was received today by the pope in private audience. He was accompanied by Frau Von Papen and they were accorded formal honors.

Another concordat, according to Vatican prelates, probably will follow a visit to the pope tomorrow by Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, of Austria. This agreement has been in negotiation for a year, the chief difficulty being the marriage clause.

The Austrian chancellor had a long conversation this morning with Premier Mussolini. In reference to this talk, Italian officials emphasized that Italy's attitude toward "anschluss"—union of Austria and Germany—was not changed by the advent of Chancellor Hitler. Italy still opposes this movement, it was said, as she did when she voted against it at The Hague, in 1931.

Mrs. Sinclair Jacobs To Tour South, Deliver 10 Disarmament Speeches

One of a group of prominent women who will speak in four sections of the country in a nation-wide campaign for disarmament, Mrs. Sinclair Jacobs, member of the board of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, will leave Atlanta by plane Thursday, April 20, to meet engagements in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee and Alabama.

Designated by the Women's International League as "disarmament messengers," these women will be appealing for public support while, at the same time, petitions will be circulated calling on President Roosevelt to make drastic military and naval cuts so that the money "thus saved may be used for the relief of the unemployed and to secure international agreements for universal total disarmament."

At the end of a month's tour Mrs. Jacobs will go to Washington and on May 20 join other leading peace figures, including Mrs. Kathleen Norris, Miss Edith E. Osburn, of Houston, Texas; Mrs. G. S. Jensen, of New Orleans, La.; and Mrs. Dorothy Detzer, of Washington, and present the petitions to President Roosevelt.

Beginning at New Orleans on the 20th, Mrs. Jacobs will speak on succeeding days in Covington and Baton Rouge, La.; Jackson, Miss.; Little Rock, Ark.; Memphis, Nashville and Chattanooga, Tenn.; Birmingham and Montgomery, Ala.

MRS. SINCLAIR JACOBS.

Blank petitions for the disarmament program of the league may be obtained by writing Mrs. Jacobs at 2933 Andrews drive.

Increasing Interest Reported In Music Club's 1933 Campaign

The Atlanta Music Club, affiliated with the Civic Music Association, in its annual membership week, reported Wednesday that campaign headquarters were active with the coming and going of interested citizens either to pay annual membership dues or to be enrolled as new members in the organization.

The campaign will continue throughout the week during which time the membership lists are open to the general public. By Saturday night it is expected that the desired quota of doubling the present enrollment will have been obtained, thus assuring a splendid series of concerts and artist recitals for next fall and winter. Under the plan of the club the membership dues finance all concerts. As all the funds raised may be used for this purpose only, the more members secured the more concerts can be presented. In addition to other advantages of this plan, it also enables the audience to express its choice of artists before the artist attractions are engaged.

Mrs. Howard C. Smith Jr. is president of the club and leader of the campaign; T. Stanley Perry is chairman of membership campaign committee and office director; Mrs. Cliff C. Hatcher is treasurer.

Those who are unable to call at headquarters may mail their application. Make checks payable to the Atlanta Music Club. Address all communications to T. Stanley Perry, music club campaign director, Cable Piano Company.

The following application for membership should be addressed to The Atlanta Music Club Campaign Headquarters, 84 Broad street, N. W.

ROBINSON OPPOSES RUSS RECOGNITION

Indianan's Assault on Advocates Stirs Borah to Renewed Appeal.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER.
WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—The question of Russian recognition flared into the open in the senate today for the first time this session and culminated in a fervent plea by Senator Borah, democrat, Idaho, for inclusion of the soviet government in all international conferences for betterment of world conditions.

"I do not know how to formulate a program without that nation," said the Idahoan, long an advocate of American recognition of Russia.

Borah's speech was prompted by Senator Robinson, republican, Indiana, who, in a prepared address, vigorously denounced advocates of recognition and asserted such an event at this time would be equivalent to "placing a gun in their hands with which to shoot us."

Robinson said with an embassy in Wash. g. n., Russian leaders would utilize it as a "central point for carrying on their admitted efforts to destroy the American republic."

Thus far representatives of the soviet have not been invited to participate in the informal parleys the administration is holding to preparation for the world economic conference.

Borah said he could not see how setting up a Russian embassy here would facilitate dissemination of propaganda because "you can buy any kind of literature on the subject for 5 cents."

He said he had made a thorough investigation of Russian affairs since

Murder Charge Seen In Rejuvenation Death

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—(AP) C. E. White, and his assistant, Miss Ann Aberli, were held by police today on suspicion of murder charges after the death last night of Mrs. Aline Farnum, 31, whom they had given a "face rejuvenation" treatment.

Neither White nor Miss Aberli held a medical license. Officers said the charges were filed when it was learned that two drugs, one of which had an anesthetic effect, had been given Mrs. Farnum, the wife of Oscar S. Farnum, a policeman. Her face was seared, as if from acid burns, officers said.

LONG IS ACCUSED OF BARRING STATE FROM WORLD FAIR

ALEXANDRIA, La., April 12.—(AP)—Arch C. Johnson, of the federal state participation division in the department of exhibits of the world's fair, said in an address here that "because the late Mayor Anton Cermak, of Chicago, voted against the seating of the delegation of Senator Huey P. Long at the democratic national convention, Long has forbidden Louisiana to send its state exhibit to the fair."

"Consequently, when Governor Allen was appealed to, he also forbade the state to exhibit to the fair," Johnson said.

Johnson pointed out that it had been announced that Herbert B. Bayliss, manager of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, was trying to get permission from the governor to finance the sending of the state exhibit to the fair through donations of interested citizens.

"Mr. Bayliss said that 'an exhibit would be arranged that will do credit to the state and Louisiana will be represented.'"

LITTLE GIRL'S LIFE DEPENDS ON RULING OF HIGH COURT

WHITE PLAINS, N. J., April 12.—(AP)—The life of two-year-old Helen Vasko was said tonight by physicians to depend on a decision of the appellate division of the supreme court.

She has a malignant tumor in her right eye and doctors said she was certain to die unless it is removed.

But her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vasko, of Hastings, have objected to the operation and have gone to the appellate division with an appeal against an order of Judge George W. Smyth, of Westchester county children's court, that the operation be performed.

Last month when Helen visited her father in Grasslands hospital doctors noticed a cast in her eye and after examining her found it was a malignant tumor which they said eventually would press against her brain and kill her.

When they explained to the parents that an operation was imperative, the mother and father refused to permit it.

Physicians and a priest pleaded with them to allow the removal of the tumor, but they remained adamant.

Then Miss Mary Moore, an agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, took the case in hand and asked Judge Smyth, of children's court, for an order instructing that the operation be performed. He granted it.

POLAND TO ADDRESS AD CLUB LUNCHEON

Carter D. Poland, president of the Poland Soap Works, Anniston, Ala., will be the guest speaker at today's meeting at the Atlanta Advertising Club at the Ansley hotel rather than at 12:30 o'clock. He will discuss advertising from the layman's viewpoint.

In an interview Mr. Carter said it was his opinion that the "new deal" era is going to require as much about-face in advertising as it has in the banking situation.

CARTER D. POLAND. A frequent contributor to Printers Ink, Advertising and Selling and other magazines, as well as such publications as Nation's Business, Mr. Poland is well qualified to discuss advertising from its various angles.

Every one interested in sales and advertising promotion is invited to attend the luncheon. Charlton Keen, president of the Atlanta Advertising Club, said.

ATTACK ON ROOSEVELT BY LONG DENOUNCED
NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—(UP) Senator Huey P. Long, of Louisiana, "doesn't know what he is talking about" when he says business conditions under President Roosevelt have gotten worse, Gabe J. Moleux, president of the New Orleans Board of Trade, declared today when that body voted the whole-hearted endorsement of the president's efforts to rehabilitate the United States.

"Senator Long made a grave mistake when he attacked the president," Moleux said. "We businessmen know that conditions are much better, and Long doesn't know what he is talking about. When Roosevelt went into office, every bank in the country was closed. Today three-fourths of the banks are open for unrestricted business and confidence has been restored."

Moleux declared the board of trade is not interested in the patronage question which Long complained about, but is interested in the constructive program outlined by President Roosevelt.

TRADE FEDERATION RAPES GRAND JURY

Presentments of the Fulton county grand jury calling for drastic reductions in Fulton county salaries Wednesday night were attacked by the Atlanta Federation of Trades as "unfair, an injustice to the workers and an outrage upon the civic life of our community." The body called upon the county commissioners to ignore the jury's demands "as unworthy of consideration."

The federation tabled a resolution asking Governor Hargrove to call a special session of the legislature on the beer question, but adopted a resolution authorizing appointment of a special committee to work with the executive board and investigate sweat shop conditions. Reports were made to the effect that sweat shops have sprung up, paying weekly wages ranging from $2 to $5.

The resolutions attacking the jury's presentments charge that the jury has given a statement to the press "containing its demands for wage reductions that totally ignore living standards and would place many worthy county employees at the door of destitution." The demands, said the federation, give no consideration to the years of faithful service on the part of our county employees during which years these employees could have gone into industry at wages far in excess of those paid by the county.

The federation declared it to be apparent that "these demands are based upon ignorance of existing conditions or upon prejudice in a deliberate attempt to reduce workers to a basis of starvation, as may be seen by the demand that heads of families now working more than 12 hours per day be reduced to a paltry $40 a month, and further, by demand that workers at $100 a month be reduced $50 while officials at $500 a month only be reduced the same amount of $50." The demands would destroy buying power of the community and destroy the "sacred American principle that every man has a right to raise a family in his own home and to educate his children as citizens of our country," the federation said.

FIELD INSPECTION TO GOVERN FLIGHT

AKRON, Ohio, April 12.—(AP)—Whether the U. S. S. Macon makes her first flight tomorrow will depend upon an inspection of a field in the morning as well as weather conditions, Captain Alger H. Dressel announced today.

The first flight of the Macon, sister ship of the ill-fated Akron, had been tentatively set for 5 o'clock tomorrow morning.

ers break at this point but did not identify them by name. Blakemore was able to state how much strength the reinforcements would have given the areas in question. Blakemore said there was no record why the alterations suggested by the manufacturers of the ship—and approved by the navy—had been ordered. He said, however, he assumed they were to have been made because of the accident had buckled further aft on the starboard side of the Akron during her west coast trip last May.

Prior to the ordering of the reinforcements on the Akron, he said, similar reinforcements had been made on the U. S. S. Macon.

Another highlight of the day's testimony at the rain-swept air station here was Commander H. V. Wiley's statement the ship may have gone into a stall because of its acute angle of inclination before the final seaward plunge. Conceding this possibility, Wiley, sole surviving officer of the crash, reiterated that in his opinion a strong downward current of air sent the ship crashing.

Wiley also disclosed that ballast had been shifted forward—from the ballast bags and tanks—some time before midnight in an effort to counteract the tail-heaviness of the ship. This fact was unknown until today, he said.

Cochrane, Blakemore and P. E. Ward, chief inspector at the station, all testified that they considered the Akron in "sound" structural condition when it started the fatal flight.

They were unanimous in terming the dirigible the "strongest" in which they had ever flown, and said they believed repairs made after various accidents to the craft strengthened rather than weakened its structure.

ROOSEVELT EXTENDS THANKS TO DALLDORF

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—President Roosevelt wrote a letter today to Captain Carl Dalldorf, of the German ship Phoebe, tendering "this nation's gratitude" for the service of the crew in rescuing three of the members of the Akron.

FLORIDA GIRL DIES OF DOSE OF POISON

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 12.—(AP)—Miss Virginia Lowrey, 20-year-old Lake Alfred (Fla.) girl, died here last night from poisoning, which police said she admitted was self-administered. She gave no reason for her act, police said.

Intense Sound Used To Make Milk Safe

CINCINNATI, April 12.—(AP)—Sound—an intense note of a particular frequency—may be used to make milk safe for babies, the American Physiological Society was told today.

Leslie A. Chambers, of the University of Pennsylvania, said experiments conducted by Dr. Newton Gaines and himself indicated that an intense 1,200-cycle note directed at a flowing stream of milk reduces its bacterial flora as effectively as the now commonly used heating and cooling method known as pasteurization. Development may make the method even more practicable, he said.

Dairymen now heat and cool raw milk to kill the bacteria. The experimenters instead used intense sound to literally shake the microorganisms apart.

7-CENT GASOLINE TAX EXTENDED IN FLORIDA

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 12.—(AP)—The Florida legislature today extended for another two years the seven-cent tax on gasoline, thus completing action on one of several revenue-producing measures up for consideration.

The senate vote on the bill, already adopted by the house, was 26 to 11, and the measure was immediately prepared for submission to Governor Sholtz for signature.

"Another revenue producer, a bill calling for a 20 per cent stamp tax on cigars and cigarettes, was introduced in the house, as was a measure providing for a tax on reforestation projects."

A tax of three cents an acre would collect funds for the process of reforestation, while a tax of 6 per cent would be charged on reforestation projects, under the forestry bill. All reforestation projects would be under supervision of the state board of forestry.

The beer question was again called to attention of the house today, but in the form of a bill to permit advertising of beer, or wines, of not more than 3.2 per cent alcoholic content. The bill was referred to the judiciary committee.

In the senate 20 new bills were introduced. One bill, by Gillis, to abolish motor vehicle title certificates, was defeated.

A total of 47 new bills were received in the house. One of them would impose a tax on billboards at the rate of 25 cents per square foot. The 25 per cent bill to amend the bill to tax cigars and cigarettes would be turned over to the general fund of the state.

ACCUSED BRITON ADMITS SABOTAGE

In the prisoner's dock the youthful engineer asserted that most of them were "paid him money," MacDonald declared, "and I received this money from Thornton."

Thornton, questioned in turn, said he had given MacDonald 1,500 rubles but he did not know the purpose for which he wanted it and was not aware that Gusev had furnished MacDonald with secret information.

Gusev, 35 years old, red-headed and slightly stooped, declared he had repented his anti-soviet ideas and wanted a chance to show his loyalty. The prosecution will follow up this line of evidence tomorrow when V. A. Sokoloff, Gusev's assistant, will take the stand. The prosecution contends that he also was in the pay of MacDonald.

The trial is being held in October Hall, the trades union meeting place. Soldiers, armed with rifles with fixed bayonets, were on duty inside and outside the court. Spectators of whom there were about 800, were admitted only by card.

Four judges were seated at a red-draped table on a dais. One of the jurists is serving as alternate. One of the Russian prisoners is a woman, Anna Sergeyevna, 37 years old, who had been married in the United States and had a number of children. She was the personal secretary of Monkhouse.

The proceedings were watched by William Strang, British consul general, and a number of secretaries from the British embassy and consulate. Virtually every member of the diplomatic corps was represented.

LONDON STILL HOLDS SUBJECTS ARE INNOCENT

LONDON, April 12.—(AP)—The British foreign office, issuing tonight its summary of today's session of the Moscow trial, noted that W. H. Macdonald, who pleaded guilty, was interrogated out of his order in the list of the accused.

The summary also stressed the point that MacDonald "has not been allowed out on bail and has, during the last four weeks, been in a G. P. U. prison without being allowed to receive advice or discuss his case with anyone except the prosecutor or his state-paid counsel."

It still is the British government's view that the charges of espionage and sabotage are without justification.

DEMANDS OF JURY IGNORED BY BOARD

Commission Will Give "Serious Consideration" to Economy Advice.

In face of the demand by the grand jury that the Fulton county commissioners give them an answer in writing today as to acceptance or non-acceptance of the jury's recommendations for drastic pay roll cuts and other economy measures, the county board in special session Wednesday afternoon declined to take any action. The commission adopted a resolution saying that the board will give the presentments "serious consideration."

The presentments recommended many changes in the policy and conduct of county affairs, including drastic pay roll cuts. In addition the jury branded the financial condition of the county as being "deplorable" due to alleged waste and mismanagement. The presentments were returned Monday and were read by the clerk, county commissioners Wednesday afternoon.

As the presentments were read each recommendation was referred to the committee chairman in charge of the department involved in the recommendation. These committees were instructed to obtain a copy of the presentments, study the recommendation and file a report. No definite time was made for filing a report despite the fact the grand jury in sending the presentments to the board demanded that an answer be forthcoming today.

The proposed salary reductions, set out in detail by the presentments, were not read at the meeting.

At the conclusion of the reading by the clerk, Chairman George F. Longino said to the board: "Gentlemen, you have heard the presentments. They are far-reaching and radical. No consideration should be shown to the county board for the work we have done. Even though we may not agree with them in many things, they are, after all, the grand jury and we should

'Pretty Boy' Reported Living in Retirement

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., April 12.—(AP)—Word that Charles Arthur (Pretty Boy) Floyd, elusive Oklahoma "bad man," has returned from outlawry and is living quietly under an assumed name in an eastern city has been received by sheriffs of eastern Oklahoma from underworld informants.

Officers say they believe it was the fatal shot of a negro bank cashier at Boardwalk, Okla., first in the body of George Birdwell, last November 25, that wound up the criminal career of Birdwell's chief. Some officers state they believe Birdwell, and not Floyd, was the brains of the band of bank robbers that so long was active in Oklahoma, despite the fact that Floyd generally was credited with the lootings.

The officers also pointed out there has been no recent report of Floyd's activities in Oklahoma.

He then offered a written resolution, which was adopted and placed on the minutes, thus officially closing the matter save for the reports of the committee chairman. The resolution reads:

"Chairman Longino presented to the board recommendations of the jury, which was adopted and placed on the minutes, thus officially closing the matter save for the reports of the committee chairman. The resolution reads:

"The action of the grand jury was 'unreasonable and inconsiderate.' Judge Humphries said. 'The grand jury is an agency of the court and works under the court. It does not operate individually and the judges do not enter into correspondence with the grand jury. The grand jury has no authority to give suggestions to the judges.'

"The judges have voluntarily taken a 42 per cent cut in the salaries paid by the county, and the request from the grand jury to cut 75 per cent of what remains is inconsiderate and unreasonable. The resolution recommended that the judges receive $10,000 a year from the county instead of $4,000 now received, as salary to supplement the state salaries of $5,000 a year.

Lawyers Seek Hearing. Commissioner Paul S. Etheridge was requested to answer a letter from Elbert Tuttle, president of the Lawyers' Club of Atlanta, asking that the club be heard from before any action is taken on the cuts recommended by the grand jury. Commissioner Etheridge is to answer the letter.

Robert C. Mizell, president of the Taxpayers' League of Atlanta, said that the jury's presentments probably will be discussed at the annual meeting of the league at 8 o'clock tonight in the Ansley hotel. The league's position was given by Mizell in a letter answering persons who have called his office and expressed the view that the grand jury was right.

"The league has never thought that the best way to reduce the cost of government is primarily through salary cuts, and, except on that occasion a year ago when salaries were outrageously high, we have never asked for reductions in salaries," Mizell said.

"We believe that the best way to reduce costs is in constructive reorganization and adjustments. Since some politicians and organized groups have blocked constructive measures, salary cuts must be made. Employees and taxpayers must bear a heavy burden exacted by the unwillingness of politically controlled groups to come together for constructive planning."

The commission heard applications for the Henderson-McCree murder reward of $250 in each case, and referred the reward money to the court so that the bench may pass on the applications. Applicants are H. G. Alexander, George L. Wilson and the West End Vigilantes, Robert Lee Morris, W. M. Lanier, Sheriff Hightower of Henry county, A. B. Bankston, E. P. Sheppard, James Aldridge, Marion Howe, Everett Steckle and L. W. Pelot.

PHIL C. McDUFFIE REPLIES TO HUMPHRIES' STATEMENT Phil C. McDuffie, prominent Atlanta lawyer, who appeared before the commission several weeks ago as the representative of the Taxpayers' League, issued a statement Wednesday night in reply to what Judge Humphries said earlier in the day.

"I respect the courts," McDuffie explained, "as every one should and have a high regard for the judiciary. They are human, however, and make mistakes."

"The statement of Judge John D. Humphries in today's papers, characterized by one of them as a 'rebuke to the grand jury,' evidences, if correctly reported, a misunderstanding on his part as to the true functions and legal rights and duties of the grand jury."

"It is an agency of the people and not—as stated by Judge Humphries—'an agency of the court.' Neither does it work under the direction of the court. It is a constituent part of the court and may act independently thereof."

"The court cannot restrict the grand jury in its investigation of public officials nor limit its inquisitorial powers. It is well to remember that all public officials, including the judiciary, are subject to these powers and wherever abuses are manifested in the conduct of the public business it is the sworn duty of the grand jury to demand their correction."

"The grand jury is an important judicial body and one of the most valuable agencies established by the people for the preservation of their rights and liberties and for the control of the office bearers of the county."

FOUR ACCIDENT VICTIMS TREATED AT HOSPITAL Fractured arms kept Grady emergency clinic physicians busy Wednesday. Among those treated at the clinic for various injuries were:

Lynnwood Calvert, 4, 253 Sibley street, fractured left arm.
Mrs. H. L. Fowler, 941 Park avenue, lacerations about the face.

Four prominent persons have agreed to serve as judges in the $1,000 "Name the Book" contest sponsored by Home Research. The book is now in its second edition. They are Dr. M. Ashby Jones, minister and writer; Mrs. William P. Dunn, president of the Atlanta Woman's Club; Eugene W. Too Many Irishmen Already in U.S., Shaw's Final Shot on Departure

By ROBERT ST. JOHN. NEW YORK, April 12.—(AP)—With an hour of final jabbing at the foibles of the world in general and America in particular, George Bernard Shaw left the country today implying he probably never would return.

Just before the Empress of Britain steamed off on the last lap of its round-the-world cruise, Shaw received 65 newspaper and magazine writers in the ship's salon.

Like the walrus in "Through the Looking Glass," he was willing to talk about "shoes and ships and sealing wax, and cabbages and kings"—and also about "Al" Smith, Hitler and Irishmen.

He thrust at all of them with rapid-fire comment.

He pretended never to have heard of former Governor Smith.

He likened Hitler to "an officer in the army who defeats his career by cheating at cards."

He said his chief interest in New York was to "get out of it."

"One of America's troubles," he declared without a smile, "is that it has too many Irishmen."

In passing, he also mentioned a few similarities he had discerned between a certain Irish wit and playwright named Shaw, and Napoleon and Shakespeare.

In spite of his exhorting of American life and manners, he insisted that: "I never offend anybody."

The name of Helen Keller popped up. Shaw already had denied that in the presence of the blind and deaf woman he had said all Americans are "blind, deaf—and dumb."

"Now look here," Shaw declared, raising his hands over his head, "the facts were I complimented Helen Keller, saying that she could see and hear better than the majority of Americans. Some idiot or other tried to make it an insult."

When the subject of war came up, the white-whiskered Irishman said: "Why should war be suppressed? Is it an evil? War is a method of killing people and a great many people ought to be killed. Yes, that includes a great many Englishmen. All Irishmen. I don't know about newspapermen, since I am one of them."

F. D. R. VOICES PLEA FOR FREER TRADE

Nations Asked To Join in Individual Parleys Prior to Conference.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, in his first speech on foreign affairs, today made a personal appeal to the nations of the American hemisphere to join his campaign for reducing artificial barriers to world trade.

Almost simultaneously the state department handed to all countries represented in Washington an invitation to join in individual parleys here preliminary to the world economic conference.

To the governing board of the Pan-American Union, meeting to celebrate Pan-American Day, the president made his address decrying the unrelenting wars in South America as a backward step, but placing emphasis on the declaration that:

"It is of vital importance to every nation of this continent that the American governments, individually, take without further delay such action as may be possible to abolish all unnecessary and artificial barriers and restrictions which now hamper the healthy flow of trade between the peoples of the American republics."

As the president spoke cablegrams were being dispatched from 42 embassies and legations in Washington transmitting to their home offices the American government's invitation to exchange views on world problems through diplomatic channels.

To eleven other nations selected from Europe, Asia and the western hemisphere, special invitations had gone earlier to send their leading statesmen to the American capital. Of these, Japan and Italy today followed Great Britain, France and Canada in naming internationally-known figures as their representatives at the White House conversations. Brazil's acceptance also was received.

Japan designated Viscount Kikujiro Ishii, former foreign minister. Premier Mussolini, of Italy, appointed Guido Jung, his minister of finance. Great Britain is sending Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, France former Premier Edouard Herriot and Canada Prime Minister Richard B. Bennett.

Still to be heard from officially were Germany, China, Argentina, Chile and Mexico, all specially invited.

The invitations to the other nations were extended after reports of some dissatisfaction among the smaller countries at being overlooked. The communications expressed in formal fashion.

MISSISSIPPI WATERS Reported Receding MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12.—(AP) Rivers in the delta of Mississippi continued to fall today despite heavy recent rains and the Mississippi itself showed another decline on the Memphis gauge.

A slight rise was recorded in the upper Tallahatchie river, but even that stream declined in its lower end. A fall of a foot being recorded in the Sumner-Webb territory.

Declines also were reported in the Coldwater and Tippo rivers as well as Matthews and Cassidy bayous, all of which have overflowed their banks in Mississippi.

LEIBOWITZ TO RETURN TO ALABAMA CASE NEW YORK, April 12.—(AP)—Samuel Leibowitz, who defended Haywood Patterson in the "Scottsboro case," said today that he would return to the south Monday to continue efforts in defense of the negroes accused of attacking two white women.

"There has been a good deal of criticism," he added in making this announcement, "because a northern lawyer was called into this case. The reason is very simple. The only way in which this case can be carried to the supreme court is by showing there has been some violation of their federal rights. I have shown such a violation, a violation of the 14th amendment to the constitution in that negroes were excluded from the jury. No southern lawyer would have dared bring up such a point. If he had his practice would have been ruined at the very least. So a northern lawyer was brought in. That explains the whole thing."

$66.50 Fine for Beer Will Be Investigated

RICHMOND, Va., April 12.—(AP) Attorney-General John R. Saunders today said he would make a complete inquiry into the arrest of two Tennesseeans who were fined $66.50 each, for transporting a bottle of beer across the southwestern tip of Virginia on their way home from Kentucky.

C. H. Redmon, state prohibition agent, who figured in the arrests, is a "good officer," the attorney-general said, "and I can't understand him having a hand in this fool action."

"A full report will be made to me in the next few days, and I shall withhold any action until that time," he said.

ion the previously indicated desire of the American government to discuss world economic matters with the countries through regular diplomatic representatives. It has been considered impractical to have all nations send delegates here for individual talks.

MISSISSIPPI WATERS Reported Receding MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12.—(AP) Rivers in the delta of Mississippi continued to fall today despite heavy recent rains and the Mississippi itself showed another decline on the Memphis gauge.

A slight rise was recorded in the upper Tallahatchie river, but even that stream declined in its lower end. A fall of a foot being recorded in the Sumner-Webb territory.

Declines also were reported in the Coldwater and Tippo rivers as well as Matthews and Cassidy bayous, all of which have overflowed their banks in Mississippi.

LEIBOWITZ TO RETURN TO ALABAMA CASE NEW YORK, April 12.—(AP)—Samuel Leibowitz, who defended Haywood Patterson in the "Scottsboro case," said today that he would return to the south Monday to continue efforts in defense of the negroes accused of attacking two white women.

"There has been a good deal of criticism," he added in making this announcement, "because a northern lawyer was called into this case. The reason is very simple. The only way in which this case can be carried to the supreme court is by showing there has been some violation of their federal rights. I have shown such a violation, a violation of the 14th amendment to the constitution in that negroes were excluded from the jury. No southern lawyer would have dared bring up such a point. If he had his practice would have been ruined at the very least. So a northern lawyer was brought in. That explains the whole thing."

Still to be heard from officially were Germany, China, Argentina, Chile and Mexico, all specially invited.

The invitations to the other nations were extended after reports of some dissatisfaction among the smaller countries at being overlooked. The communications expressed in formal fashion.

DEEN WILL SUPPORT FARM MORTGAGE BILL

Georgian Promises to Back Roosevelt, 'Right or Wrong', in Plans.

By GLADSTONE WILLIAMS. WASHINGTON, April 12.—Declaring he wished to see the best interests of his country served, Representative Braswell Deen, one of the new Georgia members of the house, told his colleagues on the floor today that he was for President Roosevelt, "right or wrong," and that he would vote for the president's farm mortgage bill.

"I am going to vote for this bill," he said, "not because I think it is a panacea for all the farmer's ills, but because I believe it will aid all our farmers to some degree."

Representative Deen emphatically asserted that congress would have to pay more serious attention to that clause of the constitution which reads that "congress shall have power to coin money, etc.," before a major operation can be performed to correct the farmer's economic aches and pains.

"Nothing will be done to help the farmer by this congress or any other congress," he declared, "until we go back to the constitutional control over the coinage of money."

INSANITY PLEA MADE FOR WOMAN KIDNAPER LOS ANGELES, April 12.—(AP)—Testimony that Lucille Pearl Hammer, convicted of kidnapping Mrs. Mary B. Skeels, 65, once owned six houses but refused to rent them has been presented by her attorneys in their contention that she is insane.

The testimony was given by J. J. Reimer, her brother-in-law, who also said she imagines sound detectors have been placed in her car to record not only her speech but her thoughts. Three county jail matrons said this was true. Four alienists testified Miss Hammer is sane.

Still to be heard from officially were Germany, China, Argentina, Chile and Mexico, all specially invited.

Child's Remark Brings Confession by Mother

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—(AP) Because of an alleged unwitting remark of her son, Gordon, 9, to a playmate that he "saw a gun in mama's hand," Mrs. Elsie Patten faced possible examination by the county grand jury today concerning the fatal shooting of her husband last January 11.

The shooting of Charles Patten, 30, had been accepted as accidental because he told officers before his death he had wounded himself while cleaning a pistol.

Reports of the boy's statement reached the district attorney's office.

Clifford Crail, deputy district attorney, questioned Mrs. Patten and said she admitted she shot her husband because "he bent me and treated me cruelly."

LEIBOWITZ TO RETURN TO

Your Uncle Wilbert Eagerly Awaits His Chief Adviser

Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson, president of the Crackers, was suffering from a mild attack of the baseball jitters last night and awaiting with ill-concealed impatience the arrival this morning of his chief adviser, Col. Tillinghast L'Hommiedieu Huston, former owner of the Yankees.

"I see by the morning paper that they are putting in a starting pitcher from the Debutante club," said Your Uncle Wilbert, "who will pitch the first ball in our opening game with the Knoxville team."

(Miss Fort Scott Meador, the beautiful and charming vice president of the Debutantes' club, has been selected by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as the honored guest pitcher of the day.)

"I have been in baseball for about 50 years," said Your Uncle Wilbert, "and I never yet heard of the Debutante club in baseball. I looked all through the baseball guides and there is no such club listed. I am thinking of writing Judge Landis about it. I do not want His Honor the Governor or His Honor the Mayor to get beamed by a fast fall. I have come to like those two fellows."

When the identity of the pitcher was made known Your Uncle Wilbert was greatly relieved. "I still want to ask my chief adviser about it," he said. "I understand he is bringing along about 30 assistant advisers from my adopted town of Brunswick. I am confident I will have good advice for the game today. There used to be a great pitcher in the National league named Meador and I want the Colonel to witness this pitcher."

The program today is the best yet. The Junior Chamber has worked diligently and long at the job. There isn't any great doubt but that success will crown their efforts and that Atlanta will win the attendance day cup. Atlanta, being a metropolitan city, does not require the buffoonery which other cities resort to in an effort to obtain a crowd.

THE GREEN-EYED MONSTER AND MR. MOORE.

Mr. Charley Moore, the Cracker manager, is consumed with envy. Clyde Milan, the Birmingham skipper, won the put-out honors for the first two games. Mr. Milan is leading all managers in put-outs, having been put out of the game on the first day.

It is a relief to find that Mr. Moore is a manager who battles for his ball club. He came charging out of the dugout yesterday to exhort Mr. Eddie Ainsmith, the umpire, because he permitted a Knoxville pitcher to crash into Wally Dashiell at second base. This helped lose the ball game.

Charley Moore uses a lot of fine words and phrases, one of them being a favorite of Mr. John Sibley, the legal adviser of the Crackers. Every time Mr. Sibley hears this phrase fall from the lips of Mr. Moore he chuckles. He knows he has a battler in Mr. Moore.

"OLD HICKORY" MESSENGER.

Andrew Jackson (Old Hickory) Messenger, who will start the game today, has been one of the best pitchers in the Southern association for three years. The tall right-hander, with the confusing side-arm delivery, came to the Crackers in 1930 from the St. Louis Cardinals.

He has never been with a winning ball club. And yet his records for those years are most remarkable. In 1930 he won an even dozen games, despite the fact he was not in condition when he reported. The next season saw him win 14 games.

The most amazing part of his record has to do with the 1932 team. It was the worst Cracker team in years and yet Messenger won 16 ball games and had one of the lowest earned run averages in the league.

He was one of the pitchers who suffered most when the 1932 Crackers dropped 30 ball games by the margin of one run. It is that factor which lends some encouragement to the prospects for this season. The batters of the 1933 team are sure to drive in more runs for the pitchers than did the hitters of last summer.

Messenger rarely pitches a poor ball game. If the Crackers come through with any support in the field and at bat, he should win more than 20 games this summer.

THE ROOM OF SORROW.

The saddest room of all was the one occupied yesterday by Wilbert Robinson. The Cracker president was getting returns of the game.

As the eighth and ninth innings came around with the Crackers trailing, a cat came into the room. Wilbert Robinson leaped to his feet and kicked at the cat, missing, and thus avoiding persecution by the S. P. C. A.

"It must have been the umpire," said Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson, "nothing but a poor decision could have robbed us

JOCKEY HIMES RIDES WINNERS

By Jack Troy.

Jockey E. Himes flashed around the track like a comet to ride three winners and go out in front as the leading jockey of the program on the occasion of Atlanta Day yesterday at the Lakewood track.

Himes rode Conventional home in the second race, brought Temple Dancer out in front in the third for the Mayor's purse, feature of the program, and hoisted Butch in the fifth race, one-mile event.

Wheeler G. won the first race, with Marbury, an outsider, romping home in the fourth.

Mayor James L. Key and city officials, honor guests, were seated in a box as the first call of "Boots and Saddles" floated out on the cool, clear air. Governor Eugene Talmadge, who, because of business reasons was not able to be at the track at the start of the program, entered Mayor Key's box late and stayed for the last of the card of excellent races.

Governor's Day will be held Friday. There will be no races today, in deference to Atlanta's opening day in the Southern league.

4,000 PRESENT.

Approximately 4,000 race fans, including city officials, businessmen and social leaders, occupied seats in the grand stand, picked favorites and had a splendid afternoon of good, clean fun.

Mayor Key was "delighted" with the Southeastern Fair Association's program, and Governor Talmadge joined by declaring it was excellent sport. He also he would gladly attend either Friday or Saturday.

In the third race for Mayor's purse, Kai Finn, ridden by Jockey J. Murray, broke away from the post first and held the lead to the second turn, with Temple Dancer, Jockey Himes up, moving up. They came into the stretch neck-and-neck and when Himes applied the whip and Temple Dancer came across the finish two lengths ahead of Kai Finn, Buzzy Bob, ridden by Jockey A. Alberts, was third. The time was 1:13.5.

Butch, Jockey E. Himes up, shot away from the barrier in the fifth race and held the advantage at the half, with Foreign Relations, ridden by Jockey Cox, making a strong bid for leadership. It was Butch's race, however, and the advantage at the finish was two lengths. Tom Ward, ridden by Jockey William Reed, was third. The time was 1:12.5.

FAST TIMES.

Excellent times were made in the other races, although the half-mile event, first on the program, was slower than Monday, due to a slightly slower track.

Primer, Jockey D. Sorenson up, was off to a head start in the second, the three-quarters mile race, and held it at least half of the way, with Conventional closing the gap fast. It was a beautiful battle as they came into the stretch Primer and Conventional staving a two-horse race for honors. Conventional galloped ahead at the finish to win by two lengths, with Primer second and Zebra, Jockey Alberts up, third. The time was 1:13 flat.

Marbury, the outsider, ridden by Jockey H. Hlad, left the post in excellent fashion and made the five-eighths mile event a one-horse race, beating out Passaic, Jockey J. Murray up, five lengths at the finish. Gamma Delta, ridden by Les Dye, was third. The time was 1:13.

WHEELER G.

Wheeler G. took the lead away from May Play at the turn in the half-mile race and stuck narrowly in the lead the rest of the way, thundering in at the finish for a length-and-a-half victory over Leeward, Jockey P. Sanford up, with Nawab, ridden by H. Gower, third. The time was 49.1-5.

The second of the four-day race meeting was again conducted in smooth, clock-like fashion and the officials are to be complimented.

An even larger crowd is expected for Governor's Day Friday. Wednesday's races again proved tough on the "talent," less-liked horses making a show of the program.

First Race—One-half mile, 2-year-olds, Wheeler G. (H. Hlad), Leonard (P. Sanford), and Nawab (H. Gower). May Play and Belle's Last also ran. Time 49.1-5.

Second Race—Three-quarters mile, 3-year-olds and upward, Conventional (E. Himes), Primer (D. Sorenson), and Zebra (A. Alberts). George (B. Sauer), Marie and O'Possum also ran. Time 1:13.

Third Race—Three-fourths mile, 3-year-olds and upward, Temple Dancer (E. Himes), Kai Finn (J. Murray), and Buzzy Bob (A. Alberts). Out Bound and Crana also ran. Time 1:13.

Fourth Race—Three-eighths mile, 2-year-olds and upward, Marbury (H. Hlad), Passaic

OPENING MOUND DUTY AWARDED TO MESSENGER

Many Notables To Take Part in Opening Ceremonies at Park.

FINE WEATHER PROMISED FANS

Governor and Mayor To Start Activities; Miss Meador To Pitch.

By Jimmy Jones.

The kibitzer in Atlanta's far-flung new baseball deal—namely John Fan—will feel the exhilaration of playing a hand himself today when the Atlanta Junior Chamber of Commerce seeks fulfillment of a prodigious effort to place 20,000 persons in the stands at Ponce de Leon park for the Crackers' home debut against the Knoxville Smokies.

This is the game which has sent the ultra energetic Jaycees out feasting on the city and placarding the highways for weeks. And at 2 p. m. it will all reach the stage of actuality when Andy Messenger, the poker-faced right-hander of the Crackers who is usually bothered by nerves or temperament on such occasions, takes the mound to oppose Atkins, of the Smokies.

REMEMBER?

If history can be trusted to repeat, Messenger will put a climatic touch to the situation, for it was this deliberate master of the submarine delivery who turned back the Nashville Volunteers, 4 to 3, in a dramatic 10-inning battle on opening day last year.

Si Roosevelt, an outfielder, will be remembered as the offensive hero of that day in 1932. It was he who knocked a home run with a single and in the ninth, tying the score and enabling Messenger to perform the proverbial and oft-spoken feat of winning his own game in the tenth. The pitcher led off with a single and came all the way home when Mule Shirley, now playing first for Knoxville, threw away Bobby Goff's sacrifice bunt. By the way, also is with Knoxville this year.

With fair weather in the offing, today's crowd is sure to be a bumper turn-out that will capture the league attendance trophy. There is a new enthusiasm for baseball here, such as has never been seen before. Today is not only a welcoming jamboree for the "new deal" but a coming out party for a brand new staff of executives, including the beloved and famous Uncle Wilbert Robinson, Charley Moore, the new manager, and a new set of owners who have done a highly praiseworthy and unselfish job of rescuing the ball club from the hands of a receiver and putting it back on a popular basis.

MISS MEADOR HURLS.

An attractive and somewhat original program of entertainment has been arranged by the Jaycees. For example, this year an attractive young lady, Miss Fort Scott Meador, vice president of the Atlanta Debutante Club, will supplant the mayor as tosser of the first ball. Duncan Peck, the Jaycees president, will be the catcher pro tem, while Governor Talmadge will act as batter and Marbury as the umpire.

The baseball for this ceremony will be dropped from the skies by Lieutenant Colonel John H. Candler, who Outfielders Charley Sheerin and Al Cohen and infielder Dick Siebert have been optioned to the York club of the New York-Pennsylvania League. Business Manager Dave Driscoll, of the Brooklyn Dodgers, announced today. Outfielder Charley Clements also was sent to York, but with no strings attached.

COLD, RAINY DAY.

The Crackers went out on the field in the face of a chilly, blowing rain that had churned the diamond into a veritable muck. Their neatly creased uniforms and their stiff new shoes were sodden. Bob Hasty, a "spot" pitcher who needs must have a dry ball to exercise his greatest asset—control—could hardly stand on the mound. Big Bob was slipping and sliding on every pitch. The infielders were skidding and falling trying to field grounders. Before long the Crackers were five runs behind. The Knoxville management naturally wanted to play the game out, for the crowd was small enough as it was, without having it rain-checked into a clear loss of that day for the box office.

Hasty was not effective under such conditions and Moore had to call on Climax Blethen and his good "rubber" arm to go to his rescue. He could not have made a better decision. This weather-beaten veteran, one of the greatest competitive pitchers baseball has ever produced, began pumping his overhand fast ball in on the Smokies. Through the rain it came pouring in on them, varied now and then by a curve.

CLIMAX IMPROVED.

The darker and more menacing the scudding clouds became, the more Blethen's effectiveness increased. Prodded on by Moore in the dugout and on the lines, the Crackers arose to meet the issue like a company of heroic infantrymen battling in the mud to gain a vantage point. They caught up with the Smokies and went ahead of them.

That feat proved the Crackers a winning ball club and excellent "mudders." Their comeback took the heart out of the Smokies and the crowd. They accomplished this without the advantage of a warm sun, or an infield or batting practice. Yet they made only one error and three double plays in the clinching mud.

There is about the 1933 Crackers the atmosphere of champions. Of course they may not win a pennant, but they will win a lot of games. The spirit of camaraderie and zest for hard work assures that. There are no star complexes. Even such capable veterans as Dashiell, Susko, Weis and Phillips have started off with the dash and nerve of collegians. Weis, who usually starts slow and then hits a highly efficient gag, has worked like a Trojan to get in shape. The younger players like Singleton, McKee, Neisler and Laskowski have been an inspiration for this example of the veterans.

The latter, in turn, have acted as godfathers and boosters for the rookies. The heaviest applause when one of the youngsters does something meritorious comes from the so-called "old-headers." There is no jealousy or resentment of their good work. Red Bollings, the veteran, who is temporarily supplanted by the kid, Laskowski, has spoken glowingly of the latter's work at third. Joe Bonowitz, a good outfielder, said Weis replace him in right without a murmur.

Another study in comradeship is seen in the second base combination where a pair of Texans—Wally Dashiell and Buster Chatham—hit it off great together. They will fight for each other. That has been proven. The Crackers of '33 also are a team that takes well with the fans. At

President Roosevelt Sees Senators Off To Victorious Start

CROWDER GIVES MACKS SIX HITS AS NATS WIN, 4-1

Crowd of 24,000 Fans Out for Opener at Washington Park.

By John F. Chester,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The Washington Senators today took the presence of President Roosevelt as good luck omen, and with a 4-1 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics sent the chief executive back to the White House shaking hands with himself above his head in answer to the opening game cheers of 24,000 fans.

Youthful Joe Cronin, starting his first game as manager of the Senators, batted out three singles in four attempts to lead the Washington attack, which prospered behind the six-hit pitching of Al Crowder and the hitless hurling of Alphonse Thomas during the last two innings.

The veteran Connie Mack was forced to send the Athletics into the season opener with a makeshift lineup. The one-time murderers' row was absent.

Withholding his starting selections until the last minute—announcing the hard-hitting young Jimmy Fox might possibly turn up in time and attempt to play—the Philadelphia manager finally decided upon one of the last-minute shifts that has helped to make him famous.

He sent Tony Freitas, diminutive left-hander to the mound in place of Lefty Grove; put Dibs Williams on left and inserted a newcomer, Edward Chochi, at shortstop. The rookie responded with a triple in the third, but that, coupled with doubles by Cramer and Johnson, accounted for most of the Athletics' heavy hitting. None of the extra-base blows figured in Philadelphia's lone run.

A sudden shift in the weather after a rainy morning, allowed the season opener here to proceed with all its customary color. Even a bright shower, however, failed to keep off a chill breeze and the crowd was held to considerably less than capacity.

of the game. But," he said, "we will get them on Thursday." He looked fiercely around to see if anyone was denying it. There was none and so he sat down, lost in sadness. The loss of a ball game gives Your Uncle Wilbert a deep and aggravated attack of the mulligrubs.

BRILLIANT HITTING.

Art Weis, the right fielder, is going along as if he intended to be the league's best outfielder, as he was with Birmingham. "String along with Art Weis," said Zippo Newman, the Birmingham reporter, "he never really hits his stride until May."

But it seems that Art Weis has hit his stride already. He blasted three hits yesterday and came through with a great performance.

EDDIE PHILLIPS' HOME RUNS.

Eddie Phillips, the Cracker catcher who hit two home runs in two days at Knoxville, was announced in these columns some time ago as the league's best catcher.

There is a deep bond between Eddie Phillips and the conductor of this corner of comment. Eddie Phillips and the old conductor escaped from the smoke of Sulpher Dell shortly after the 1927 season.

Eddie Phillips and Fred Sington should give the republican stands in left field plenty of punishment this summer.

THE MULE COMES BACK.

Mule Shirley, thinner and in better shape than ever, is making a real comeback with Knoxville. The Mule is a good ball player and deserves a good hand. He had a good year in 1932.

CINCINNATI, April 12.—Pittsburgh's Pirates chalked up one victory on their way to a possible National League pennant today, defeating the Cincinnati Reds, 4 to 1, in the season's opening game.

Two doubles by Suhr, and a triple by Paul Waner helped humble Cincinnati, while the Red Sox crew was helpless before Suhr's deliveries.

The Reds attempted a ninth-inning rally but Lou Gehrig hit into a double play after Suhr's double, and the game was over.

WILLIAMS DENIES ACCEPTING BRIBE

U. S. Agent Claims Money was Offered by King as Compromise.

Lewis Williams, former intelligence officer of the department of internal revenue, took the stand in his own defense Wednesday in federal district court, where he is on trial on charges of accepting a $3,000 bribe to help Clyde L. King smooth out his income tax troubles. He denied accepting the money.

Williams, third defense witness, said he did not contract to accept a bribe while investigating charges against King, Atlanta manufacturer, but that he was obtaining evidence against King and would have made a full report to his superiors. He asserted that the money was offered as a compromise and not as a bribe.

"The money was not given me as a bribe for me to use my influence," he told the jury, "but merely as a compromise which Mr. King was trying to effect."

His attorneys had not finished questioning him when court recessed for the afternoon. He will go on the stand again this morning, when the government will cross-examine him.

The only other defense witnesses called when the defense began its case Wednesday were Howard P. Wright, county prohibition administrator, and George Brodnax, in charge of the secret service here. They testified they had known Williams for many years and were confident of his integrity and honor.

Amos W. W. Woodcock, assistant attorney-general, asked each if they knew Williams had been maintaining a woman friend and a companion on his government expense account. Both said they did not.

"Had you known that," asked Woodcock, "would you have thought so much of him?" The answers were in the negative.

Woodcock announced that he could prove his statement, and show that Williams carried the woman on official trips and carried her expenses on his expense account, and that the government paid for long-distance calls she made to him from Miami.

The case is expected to reach the jury this afternoon.

SEPARATION ASKED BY WIFE OF ISHAM, BRITISH WAR HERO

Colonel Ralph Heyward Isham, British war hero, collector of rare books, and well known in Atlanta, has been sued for separation by his second wife, Mrs. Margaret Hurt Isham, who asked for $2,000 a month alimony and $15,000 counsel fees. She charged cruelty and abandonment.

Colonel Isham, who owns the largest collection of the writings of James Boswell, was in Atlanta several weeks ago to lecture at Emory University on Boswell. While here he was the victim of fumes from an ammonia tank explosion in a fashionable apartment hotel.

Said to possess wealth in excess of $1,000,000, Colonel Isham is one of the world's foremost collectors of manuscripts and rare books. In 1914 he married his first wife, Marion Gaynor, when she was 16 years old. They separated in 1915 and he went to England and enlisted as a private, later rising to the rank of lieutenant colonel. He was decorated for gallantry in action.

The Rev. John Moore Walker, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, conducted the services. Mrs. Paschall was in her 57th year, having lived in Atlanta for the last 40 years. Her husband, the late Mr. Walter Goode Paschall, Atlanta business leader, died in 1908.

A. E. CONSTANTINE NAMED CHAIRMAN OF PATRIOTIC BODY

Augustus E. Constantine has been appointed state chairman of the Greek-American patriotic committee, which is intended to promote the cultural and commercial relations between the United States and Greece, according to an announcement made Wednesday. The committee is national in scope and fosters reciprocal economic, cultural, social, political and trade relations between the two nations.

Outlining the work of the committee, officials said it was designed to carry forward the pleasant relations between the countries. In 1931 former Governor Hardman presented the flag of Greece to Greece, which nation in return presented their national flag to Georgia. Mr. Constantine emigrated to America from Greece when he was four years old. Educated in the public schools and at Georgia Tech, he has established an enviable reputation and now is with the firm of Heintz, Adler & Schuler, architects. He is a member of the Masons and Elks and has served the Order of Ahepa as president for three consecutive years. The Georgia committee includes prominent Greeks in all sections of the state.

SCHOOL WITHDRAWALS ARE HELD 'IRREGULAR'

The manner in which D. B. Rowe, treasurer of the Cross Keys school district, the auditor pointed out, paid his own salary was "irregular," State Auditor Tom Wisdom reported Wednesday after an audit of the school district that withdrawals amounting to $805 were made by Rowe to pay his own salary but the checks were not approved by the chairman of the school board. The law provides that no withdrawals may be made unless a school district chairman approved the checks.

Books of the district were destroyed in a fire which razed Rowell's home about a year ago, but the auditor reported that from bank statements it was shown that the district collected $10,645.43 during 1931 and 1932 and that $7,539.91 was spent during the two years. The district has a balance of $3,105.12 in the bank.

Liquor Law Violators Freed in Michigan

LANSING, Mich., April 12.—(AP)—All liquor law violators without other crime records have been paroled from state prisons, Governor William A. Comstock said today.

Many persons convicted of violating the prohibition statutes remain in penal institutions, he said, solely because they have records of other crimes. The governor said he has no intention of releasing them until their terms have expired.

Boyd, a son-in-law, in whose home the slaying occurred, were freed last night on peremptory instructions from Circuit Judge J. P. Bailey.

At the start of the trial, the other two of the nine original defendants were dismissed on motion of the commonwealth. They were Mrs. John H. Mills and Mrs. Fred Mills, daughters-in-law.

Defense counsel said the sentences would be appealed.

All nine of the relatives had been charged with murder and conspiracy as a result of the choking to death of the aged woman, who was alleged to have been offered up as a sacrifice during rites conducted by a cult headed by John.

TOWERS SUPPORTED FOR NAVY AIR CHIEF

National Aeronautic Association Joins in Urging Georgian for Post.

By GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.
WASHINGTON, April 12.—The National Aeronautic Association, through its president, former Senator Hiram Bingham, of Connecticut, today joined forces with congressional leaders who are urging the appointment of Captain John S. Towers, a native Georgian, as chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics to succeed Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, who lost his life in the recent Akron disaster.

Representative Carl Vinson, of Georgia, chairman of the house naval affairs committee, was one of the first to urge Captain Towers' appointment after the death of Admiral Moffett. He has held several conferences with navy department officials on the subject.

The chances of the Georgia man receiving the appointment were strengthened yesterday after Secretary of the Navy Swanson announced that a flying, rather than a sea-going, officer of the service will be selected to head the important bureau. Previously the navy selection board had submitted a list of three admirals for the post, all without flying service.

The appointment of Towers to be his successor was recommended by Admiral Moffett only a short time before his death, and Bingham declared he does not believe "there is a better qualified officer for this important position."

Miss Wright Weds James Edwin Gunby At Decatur Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Bernice Wright, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wright, of Decatur, to James Edwin Gunby, of Atlanta, was solemnized Wednesday morning at the home of the bride on Clairmont avenue at 9 o'clock. Rev. Horace S. Miss Mary Alexander, of Agnes Scott College, rendered a program of nuptial music and sang "I Love You Truly."

The improvised altar in the living room, where the ceremony took place, was banked with palms and ferns, with floor baskets of Easter lilies on either side. Seven-branched tapers and baskets of sprigs were used in graceful arrangement throughout the house.

Mrs. Leonard Turner, of Thomson, sister of the bridegroom, acted as matron of honor, and wore a model of blue crepe, a shoulder spray of sweetheart roses completing her costume. Eugene Gunby, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride wore a smart ensemble of steel-blue wool crepe, with a blouse of eggshell taffeta. Gray accessories and a shoulder spray of sweetheart roses and valley lilies completed her effective costume.

Mrs. T. L. Wright, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blue crepe with shoulder bouquet of rosebuds. Mrs. A. B. Gunby, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in black crepe and wore a shoulder spray of roses.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gunby left for a wedding trip to Florida, after which they will reside in Atlanta.

THE WHITE SISTER

By F. Marion Crawford.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

On the day that Angela Chiaromonte's engagement to Ernesto Traversi (both children of rich parents in a city near Rome) Angela, quite by chance meets a handsome young army officer, Giovanni. There is a carnival and street celebration going on, and Angela, after going to her home (near church, resolves to join the happy celebration without her father knowing it. While enjoying herself amidst the people of the street, she encounters Giovanni and he insists on taking her to a restaurant, where they enjoy the music and have tea and cakes. They fall completely in love. Parting at her father's gate, they promise to see each other again soon, at any cost. On the night when Angela's father announces her engagement, Giovanni manages to be present, and while the announcement is being made, takes her into the garden and tells her of his great love and his intention to marry her. The father surprises them, orders Angela into the house to her fiancé, and tells Giovanni that he must never be seen with his daughter again. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT IV.

Giovanni left, repeating his promise to return to Angela, but even this did not quiet the storm in her heart. She assailed her father for his cruel treatment of her lover. Words passed between them, bitter, harsh words that made the prince almost forget he was addressing his daughter, a sensitive beautiful child.

Sobbing, Angela cried: "If you won't allow me to see him as I want to, to the hell I shall go to him!" As her father, watched her in utter

NEW YORK, April 12.—(P)—

Stocks pointed downward with most other financial markets today, but the average loss was fractional.

Brisk profit-taking in grains helped keep shares lower all day. However,

favorable business statistics tended to offset the decline in commodities.

Some leaders lost a point or slightly more; few were able to fight the lower trend successfully. Sales totaled

74,861, the smallest volume in more than a week.

A regular 60-cent quarterly dividend

for Woolworth Food Stores, Inc.,

which had been expected for a cut and the stock rallied more than a point.

Continental Can's directors also voted the usual 50-cent payment, which helped the shares moderate their fall.

American Telephone lost 1 1/2 net, United States Steel preferred, Case, Coca-

Cola and Harvester sagged 1 to 1 1/2.

Trade trends were cheerful. Steel operations, Iron Age said, have expanded to 1912 per cent from 161.2,

thus virtually returning to the 1909

average level; incidentally this is the sharpest gain for any week of the year. Commercial insolvencies wrote the best March record in the past eight years.

The day's annual stockholders'

meetings uncovered a few expressions of mid optimism. The head of Republic Steel Corporation, Tom N.

Frederick, characterized February as

"a pretty good month" and said it had been followed by a rebound which he thought was the start of a gradual upturn.

Credit underwent what has come to be its daily downward revision. Acceptance yield rates were cut .1-8 of 1 per cent and stock exchange call loans went to 1 per cent after renewing at 1 1/2.
